301-1.2(a)(1) What are the responsibilities of an employee traveling on official travel?

Employees are responsible for:

- 1) Knowing the Federal Travel Regulations (FTR), Department of Commerce (DOC) Travel Regulations, and the NOAA Travel Regulations (NTR);
- 2) Performing official travel that is advantageous to the government and does not directly nor personally benefit the employee;
- 3) Exercising the same care in incurring expenses that a prudent person would exercise when traveling on personal business;
- 4) Ensuring that all necessary official expenses are either authorized in advance on a travel authorization or post approved on a travel voucher;
- 5) Submitting an accurate and factual travel voucher within five business days upon completion of temporary duty (TDY) travel or every thirty days while performing extended TDY; and
- 6) Paying their J.P. Morgan Chase travel card bill within 25 days of the statement date if they have one.

301-1.2(c)(1) What is the definition of invitational travel?

Invitational travel is travel paid in part or whole by NOAA of persons other than DOC employees, serving without pay, or at $1 a year.

See FTR, Chapter 301-1.

301-1.2(c)(2) What travel allowances are invitational travelers entitled to receive?

Invitational travelers are held to the same rules and regulations as NOAA employees and are therefore entitled to the same travel allowances as NOAA employees, i.e., lodging and M&IE not to exceed the maximum. Invitational travelers are entitled to travel advances and are required to procure common carrier transportation through a servicing Travel Management Center.

See NTR, Chapter 301-51

301-1.2(c)(3) How can we ensure that invitational travelers follow the same rules that a NOAA employee follows?

Officials authorizing invitational travel authorizations should ensure, at the time the invitation is extended, that the traveler is aware that all of the travel arrangements are being made by NOAA. This is to prevent the invitational traveler from purchasing transportation with personal funds.

301-1.2(c)(4) How are travelers noted as “invitational” on travel authorizations?

“Invitational” is annotated in the title block of the travel authorization.

301-1.2(c)(5) What type of travel can we authorize for invitational travel?

You may only authorize invitational travel to a conference or meeting, but you cannot authorize invitational travel for training purposes.

301-1.2(c)(6) How are employees from other Federal Agencies who work in NOAA offices classified?

Employees from other Federal Agencies who work in NOAA offices are considered an employee for purposes of Travel Manager TM system access. However, they are not eligible for a NOAA travel card. They are required to obtain a travel card from their respective agency.

301-1.3(e) Are cost-reimbursable contractors or grantees eligible for invitational travel authorizations?

Travel authorizations cannot be issued to contractors who receive a fee for services rendered to NOAA. Travel authorizations cannot be issued to individuals who have received a grant, and are using the grant.

Subpart B – Authorizing Official

301-1.10 What is an authorizing official?

An authorizing official holds the authority to approve travel authorizations subject to the limitations established in the NOAA Travel Regulations (NTR) which is comprised of the Federal Travel Regulations (FTR), Department of Commerce (DOC) Travel Regulations, and NOAA specific travel regulations. The authorizing officials who have been delegated the authority to approve travel must personally sign the travel authorization.

301-1.11 Who can sign travel authorizations when an authorizing official is physically away from the office and cannot approve travel authorizations?

Only individuals in suitable management positions should be permitted to sign for authorizing officials during their absences. The term “suitable management positions” excludes secretaries or other office staff performing duties at the clerical or other non-management levels. Authorizing officials are responsible for travel authorizations authorized for them in their absence.

301-1.12 What are the responsibilities of the authorizing official?

Within the bounds of the NTR, it is the authorizing official’s responsibility to:

- 1) Determine whether the travel required, is in the interest of the Government, and complies with the overall travel plans of the organizational unit;
- 2) Approve itineraries which will most effectively serve program needs at the least cost, but within the rules of the NTR;
- 3) Approve transportation that is advantageous to the government, by the most expeditious means practicable, and commensurate with the mission at hand;
- 4) Approve appropriate per diem rates, i.e., reduced per diem, actual subsistence, etc.;
- 5) Schedule employee’s travel within their regular workweek to the maximum extent possible;

- 6) Ensure that the travel authorization is properly prepared and includes where necessary:
 - a. A valid justification when a contract carrier is not used;
 - b. An acknowledgement statement when special fares will be used where change/cancellation fees may be charged;
 - c. An attached valid justification for the use of a foreign flag air carrier;
 - d. The dates of any authorized leave points. Note, while leave dates must be shown on a travel authorization, leave points (location) are not shown; and
 - e. The location of an authorized rest stop.
- 7) Ensure that a CD-334, "Request for Approval for Other than Coach-Class Accommodations" is processed in accordance with FTR and NTR, Chapter 301-10 whenever premium class travel is authorized.

301-1.13 What is the difference between an authorizing official and an approving official as it relates to travel?

An authorizing official authorizes the obligation of funding on the travel authorization and an approving official authorizes reimbursement of the travel expenses on the travel voucher.
